

SUMMARY OF CHRISTIAN BELIEFS

We are required to know and to believe:

- That there is one supreme, eternal, infinite God, the Creator of heaven and earth.
- That the good will be rewarded by him for ever in heaven, and that the wicked who die unrepentant will be punished forever in hell.
- That in the Holy Trinity there are three Persons, coeternal, coequal: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit.
- That the Second Person of the Holy Trinity became man and died on the cross to save us.
- The tenets of the Apostles' Creed.
- In the Commandments of God and of the Church.
- That the seven sacraments were instituted by Christ to give us grace; especially, that Baptism is necessary and that the Eucharist is a pledge of our future glory.
- That Sacred Tradition and Sacred Scripture, which together form one sacred deposit of the Word of God, are entrusted to the Church.
- Whatever God teaches us by his Church, who in her teaching cannot deceive us or be deceived.

“The Roman Pontiff, head of the college of bishops, enjoys [this] infallibility in virtue of his office, when, as supreme pastor and teacher of all the faithful, he proclaims by a definitive act a doctrine pertaining to faith or morals. . . . The infallibility promised to the Church is also present in the body of bishops when, together with Peter's successor, they exercise the supreme ‘Magisterium,’ above all in an Ecumenical Council. When the Church through its supreme Magisterium proposes a doctrine ‘for belief as being divinely revealed’ and as the teaching of Christ, the definitions ‘must be adhered to with the obedience of faith.’” (cf. CCC, 891)

WHO IS RCIA FOR?

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What have I prayed for persistently in the past? Am I receptive when I am asked for something persistently?

When we are desperate to obtain or achieve something, we persist. Persistence in prayer indicates the importance we place upon what we pray for. Jesus prayed persistently from the time he was baptized to the moment he died on the cross. The disciples ask Jesus to teach them to pray.

Let us pray persistently!

LORD,
ON THE
DAY I CALLED FOR HELP,
YOU ANSWERED
ME.

GENESIS TO JESUS

What is the Bible, where does it come from, and what is its purpose? How are Catholics supposed to read the Bible and what story does it tell?

These are the ever-important questions answered in GENESIS TO JESUS, the video Bible Study from the St. Paul Center. Join us to learn the basic Catholic principles for reading Scripture and to survey the broad outlines of the books of the Bible and their place in the story of salvation. GENESIS TO JESUS surveys the principal covenants that God made with his people through figures such as Adam, Noah, Abraham, Moses, and David. This study also shows how each of these covenants points forward to - and is fulfilled by - Jesus Christ and his Church. In this 12-part series, participants will see a panoramic vision of salvation history and humanity's place in this story.

Registration forms are available for this Bible Study that begins on August 21 at 6:30pm in the School Cafeteria.
