Dear Friend:

We are excited to announce the First Annual Columbus Catholic Young Adult Conference to be held on Saturday, October 12, 2019, at our host parish, Saint John Neumann in Sunbury, OH!

Modeled after the very successful Columbus Catholic Men's and Women's Conferences held each February, this inaugural conference has been designed and developed by young adults for young adults.

Our focus will be young adults, 18 to 35 years old, single, married, male and female, college students and professionals in the Diocese of Columbus plus Ohio universities and colleges with a Catholic campus ministry.

Our mission is "To empower young adults to transform their communities through their identity in Christ." As a committee member stated, we want conference participants to be inspired and transformed in Christ, to be motivated to return home to their parishes and get involved, equipped with practical tools and resources to live out their discipleship and to create faith-filled communities of young adults within their own parishes and communities.

The conference will be a day filled with speakers, multiple breakout sessions, reconciliation throughout the day, time for fellowship, meals, prayer, adoration, exhibits, and Mass. Childcare will be provided.

Your sponsorship help is greatly needed to launch this inaugural conference. Although we have the generous support of Father Paul Noble, pastor of Saint John Neumann parish, and Father Noble's staff, as well as our all-volunteer young adult planning committee, we can't host a successful conference without your help.

Please see the attached document for further information and sponsorship funding levels. We appreciate your consideration and support!
