Real Presence, Real Future Reflections

Humility allows us to fully love one another. No greater act of humility is possible than Jesus becoming man. Jesus calls married couples to emulate His humility. When two people become one, God calls them to put aside their personal egos to be one for each other. This very special call to marital collaboration is a shining example of how we can be collaborative in life, including our Diocesan Real Presence, Real Future initiative. Today, let us pray that as this initiative progresses, we will be inspired to be of one mind and one heart in the Lord as we work together.

Question of the Week

What can I do to put the needs of those I love, of those who depend on me, above my own needs this week?

Human nature is imperfect, and so are human relationships. Marriages can become painful and traumatic, often because one partner neglects or even hurts the other when they no longer care for the other's needs. Children can become uncared for and even unloved, which is especially tragic since they have so many needs. May our awareness that we all stand in need of God's love and care make us sensitive to others' needs.
