2023 Calendar Now Available

A Big Thank You goes to Addy Funeral Home for our 2023 calendars. They are now available on the table in the church hall. Please give to your family, friends, people at nursing homes.

Prayer for a Seminarian

In the main entrance are prayer cards for each seminarian from the Columbus Catholic Vocations. Please take a card for one or two seminarians and say the prayer on the back each day.

Catholic Campaign for Human Development

Thank you for your generous support last week for the collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development! As a parish, we raised $67.00 to support those on the margins who live in poverty in the United States. If you missed the collection, it's not too late to give! For more information go to www.usccb.org/cchd

Ladies Christmas Party

The Ladies will hold their Christmas Party on December 4th at 1:00pm in the Hall. All ladies are welcome. Please sign up in the hallway. We will also be now collecting items for Blessed Again. This can be cleaners, gloves, hats, underwear, socks, hygiene products, etc. Thank you for your generosity!

How can I walk in the Lord's paths in my own community and with my own family?

Advent begins as early as it possibly can this year, but it still doesn't arrive before the deluge of Christmas music, decorations, and advertisements. Today's Gospel provides us with a bracing counterpoint to this premature merriment. There'll be no parties in anticipation of the apocalypse! Paul and Isaiah show us a different way to prepare. Let us "put on the armor of light" and "walk in (the Lord's oaths)". Paul's metaphor of armor implies that hardships await, but light tells us that what we do should be done openly, enlightening others by our example. Paul says we should "put on the Lord Jesus Christ", as he did, even in his own continual hardships. This is how we truly walk in the Lord's paths.
